SCORE BY INNINGS.

Highlanders 3 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1-5
Washington 0 0 1 2 0 0 1 1 1-5

BATTING ORDER.

New York: Hahn, cf.; Kessler, rf.; Elberfeld, ss.; Yeager, 3b.; Williams, lb.; Chase, 1b.; Dougherty, if.; McGee, c.; Chesbro, p.; Umlair-Mr. Sheridan.

By BOZEMAN BULGER.

(Special to The Evening World.) AMERICAN LEAGUE. B.A.L.L. GROUND, WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. While the Highlanders were not strong for the early going to-day they waited a little revenge, and went after it. That is, they waited for Griffith's band to get into a philosophical way to say: "That's likely to happen to any well-regulated club, if it does mean the loss of a chance for the pennant."

First Inning.

Hahn was hit by the second ball pitched and went to second on Keeler's sacrifice. Elberfeld hit a long single to left, but Huelman's quick throw held Hahn at third. Yeager landed for a single, scoring Hahn. Williams followed with a two-base drive to the scoreboard, scoring Elberfeld and sending Yeager to third. This sent Jacobson to the timbers, Patton taking his place. On the squeeze play Williams scored, while Chase died at first. Dougherty struck out, a grounder to Hickman. THREE RUNS.

Second Inning.

Huelman got a Texas Leaguer, McGee's fly. Hickman threw out the final out. Chesbro, Hahn filed out to Cassidy. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Keeler was allowed to walk. Elberfeld lifted a high fly to Hickman. Keeler was out. Yeager's sacrifice hit to the score board but fell. Between first and second and had to be thrown back to first. Joe was then out. A grounder to Williams disposed of a runner. A two-base drive to right was good for two runs. Cassidy walked. One run. Cassidy walked the ball in deep. Cassidy walked the ball in deep. Cassidy walked the ball in deep. ONE RUN.

Fourth Inning.

Williams was allowed to walk. Chase popped out. Yeager's sacrifice advanced both, and Williams scored. McGee's grounder to Hickman. Chase was out trying to steal home. ONE RUN.

Fifth Inning.

Cassidy got Chesbro's grounder. Hahn popped out. Kessler filed to Stanley. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Hickman threw out Elberfeld. Stahl popped out. Yeager's sacrifice advanced both, and Williams scored. McGee's grounder to Hickman. Chase was out trying to steal home. ONE RUN.

Seventh Inning.

Dougherty hit a slow one to Stahl but Patton covered the base. Yeager threw the ball over his head and Dougherty went to second. McGee hit a line drive to Hickman and Dougherty was doubled up at second. Hickman threw out Chesbro. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Hahn's grounder to Hickman was a grounder. Patton got Keeler's grounder and lunched out on the line. Cassidy threw to Elberfeld. NO RUNS.

BURGMASTER BEST 2-YEAR-OLD

Handicapper Vosburgh Rates Whitney Youngster as Being Four Pounds Better Than the Winner of the Futurity.

By FRANK W. THORP.

The weights for the Great Eastern Handicap, to be run to-morrow, are very interesting, and should be observed by racers as valuable data. Mr. Vosburgh, his handicapper, has placed next to Burgomaster, with 128 pounds. Picking out spots that appear weak in the handicap the writer will take Ravens, 104; Toots Mook, 108; McKittredge, 108; Redmoore, 106; and The Quail, 88. What price would Ravens, a filly that ran Tampa and Juggler such a hard race at Saratoga, be in a handicap of this sort? It would look as if a man could take any price he wanted and go to sleep on it. It is not so, however. It is more often right than wrong by a large margin. Mr. Vosburgh's handicapper has put into consideration the following: Another Gallop for Snyboy. Snyboy will gallop around the course in the Annual Champion Stakes to-morrow, and in due time his owner, James R. Keene, will receive another check, this time for $30,000. Snyboy will then be retired for the season. He retires the champion three-year-old of the year, no matter what claims are made for Artful. That great young filly will no doubt now speedily recover from her indisposition and rather up such crumbs as the great Snyboy has designed to leave behind.

FRANK KRAMER NOW IS QUARTER-MILE CHAMPION

TEMPLE DRAWS WITH LANGFORD

Men Fight Fifteen Fast Rounds, with Both in Good Shape at the End.

(Special to The Evening World.) MARIBORO, Mass., Sept. 8.—Larry Temple, of New York, and Sam Langford, of Boston, colored welter-weight, went fifteen fast rounds to draw last night, before the Highland A. C. Langford had previously met defeat at the hands of the New Yorker, and both men were on edge for the bout.

The fight was even all the way through, although Temple was the aggressor. There was a lot of in-fighting, and in the first five rounds it was even up. There was some lively fighting in the next few rounds, and Temple the aggressor. Langford came back fast and gave a good account of himself to the finish. In the preliminary bouts Young Murray, of Roxbury, got the decision over the McLean, of Hudson, in six rounds. Charles Elmendorf, of Worcester, and Kid Freeman, of South Boston, went eight rounds, and the former got the decision.

KEELER NOT SURE THE GIANTS ARE INVINCIBLE.

Willie Keeler says: "You made a mistake the other day when you printed a story quoting me that 'the Giants can't be beat.' My remark was that the Giants must be game to stand where they are, I, or any other ball player, would hesitate about making such a statement. The New York Nationals are certainly a great team. They have the pitchers, Ac., and have had good luck none of the regulars being hurt. 'But at the present time I don't know who's going to win the American League pennant, and I'm mighty certain I can't pick the world's champion team. 'One thing I may say, however, is that the coming post-season series will be the greatest event that has happened in the history of our national sport. Whichever team in our League gets the flag will give the National League winner, the Giants or Pirates, a fight worth seeing. As for the victor, I'd like to be sure myself, because, maybe, I might put up a little bet.'"

BETWEEN ROUNDS.

By JOHN POLLOCK. After a rest of seven months, Joe Gans, the light-weight champion of the world, will again don the gloves and defend his title. The fighter Gans will meet will be Mike "Twin" Sullivan, the clever light-weight of New England, who will be matched to fight Jimmy Gardner in case he stands off the clever colored boy. Gans and Sullivan will clash in a fifteen-round bout at the opening boxing show of the Europa & Co., of Baltimore, which will be brought off in the Lyric Theatre of that city on the night of Sept. 11.

Lewis Wants to Fight. Willie Lewis, the local fighter, who has advanced many points as a result of his victory over Jack O'Keefe, the Chicago light-weight, at Detroit, is ready to fight Joe Gans at 128 pounds at 2 P. M. or Joe Walcott, the welter-weight champion, at 140 pounds, weigh in at the ringside. Lewis has decided to train faintly for fights in the future. He received $25 for his share for beating O'Keefe.

Abe Attal Also Boxer. That Abe Attal means to force Sam Brown, the English fighter, to meet him is shown by the story that when Attal made an announcement to the press for beating O'Keefe, he said that he would meet Brown in a ten-round bout at the Lyric Theatre of that city on the night of Sept. 11.

BRITT FAVORITE HERE AT 10 TO 8

part performances with which the spirit sportsman has approached the matter of backing. In the light of the big betting men show a decided leaning to Britt, though a habitual regard for the influence of chance has kept the odds at a close bargain. Withal there was enough Nelson money to cover the short end of every offer made to-day.

Odds Rule 10 to 8 on Britt. The odds prevailing at San Francisco were considered good enough for considerable transactions in which figured on the Britt and such men as George Conditina, Sam Bernard, John Kelly, Tom O'Rourke and others who are always willing to take a flyer on any proposition in which men who walk the padded mitt are the objects of a stake. Their bank rolls were displayed with the verbal label: "Ten to 8 on Britt," and they will likely be doing business on that plan until the bell clangs at Colma, 5 o'clock, Eastern time, to-morrow.

Among the bookmakers, about the largest single wager taken was that of Joe Ullman, who quickly got out a $100 note to cover a $50 proposition from a Nelson admirer. Ullman's confidence in the "Native Son" was just one point stronger than the prevailing odds here and on the coast.

At the Metropole any number of $50 and $30 bets were made among the smaller fry, and there will be some money to-night, there and elsewhere about town.

TO SPLIT THE PURSE, AND SIDE BET IS OFF.

(Special to The Evening World.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—The purse in the Britt-Nelson fight will be split, sixty per cent. going to the winner and forty to the loser. Furthermore, the side bet has been called off. This statement was made to-day by Nelson, Nelson's manager. He declares that the proposition was made by Britt, and that it was with great reluctance that he consented to it. None of the Britt party could be found around early to-day so that their version of the agreement of an earlier date is not known.

That the proposition was made by Britt, and that it was with great reluctance that he consented to it, is shown by the fact that when the man entered the ring they will be surrounded by a crowd that will have paid $75,000 to see the fight.

"BRITT IN 3 ROUNDS" SAYS EDSON.
